

New Jersey's 'Do Not Call' law is a superior piece of legislation that protects the citizens' privacy and sanity. I do not wish to be contacted by telemarketers. When I need the services of a business, I will seek out the providers. I can not recall EVER getting a telemarketing offer that I wanted or needed. Please, for the people's sake, do not alter the New Jersey law; strengthen the federal law!